Verse 1

A A C#m7

I don't move as good as I used to

Some days it takes me a minute or two

But the world keeps turning like it's meant to do

D A

And time don't wait, it just carries you through

Verse 2

A A C#m7

I've had good days, and a few slip away

D A

Had a few things work out a different way

A A C#m7

But you live long enough and you'll see it's true

D A

The things worth keeping take time to come through

Chorus

A A C#m7

We're just passin' through time, like the wind through the pines

D A

Just small little pieces, in a bigger design

A C#m7

The older I get, the more that I know

D E7 A C#m7 D

There ain't nothin' wrong with being another day old

[INTERLUDE] A C#m7 D7 A

Verse 3

A A C#m7

There's a long stretch of road, and a sky full of blue

D A

And the radioplayin' that worn out tune

A C#m7

Used to drive like I had somewhere better to go

D A

And now I just let them miles roll easy and slow

ANOTHER DAY OLD

We're just passin' through time like the wind through the pines

There ain't nothin' wrong with being another day old
